WEEK 32

HIGHLIGHTS

PROMPTS

	MON JEREMIAH 1-3	<ul> <li>Call of Jeremiah During King Josiah's Reign</li> <li>Charges Against Judah</li> </ul>	God often compares adultery to idolatry. How are they the same?
	TUE JEREMIAH 4-6	<ul> <li>Trouble Looming</li> <li>Not One is Upright</li> <li>Invasion Prophesied</li> </ul>	Read 8:6 again. How does it happen that God is so angry and yet people are so clueless?
	WED JEREMIAH 7-9	<ul> <li>False Religion is Worthless</li> <li>Sin &amp; Punishment</li> </ul>	Why do you think graven idols were so appealing to people in ancient times?
	THU JEREMIAH 10-13	<ul> <li>God, Description of Idols</li> <li>Broken Covenant</li> <li>Jeremiah &amp; God Exchange</li> <li>Jeremiah's Linen Belt</li> </ul>	How might peer pressure have affected God's people back then?
	FRI JEREMIAH 14-17	• Drought, Famine, Wars Predicted	No one listened to the prophecies of Jeremiah at the time. Why do you think that is?
	SAT JEREMIAH 18-22	<ul> <li>At the Potter's House</li> <li>Jeremiah &amp; Pashhur</li> <li>Jeremiah's Complaint</li> <li>Babylon is Coming</li> <li>Judgment on the Kings</li> </ul>	Jeremiah's complaint rehashes his years as a prophet. Why do people blessed by God sometimes suffer so deeply?
	SUN JEREMIAH 23-2 5	<ul> <li>Righteous Branch</li> <li>False Prophets</li> <li>Comparing the Figs</li> <li>70-Year Exile Prophesied</li> </ul>	Why did people find it so easy to listen to the false prophets? What were they telling the people?
